A second-floor balcony overlooks the lobby of the new Iron Horse Hotel, which caters to motorcycle enthusiasts and business travelers. The hotel is in close proximity to the Harley-Davidson Museum.

Biker boutique hotel opens

The 102-room Iron Horse Hotel, 500 W. Florida St., is now open.

The Iron Horse, located just a few blocks south of the Harley-Davidson Museum, is a boutique hotel aimed at both motorcycle riders and travelers who want to stay at a luxurious, yet edgy, hotel.

Developer Tim Dixon created the six-story hotel by renovating a former warehouse.

For motorcycle riders, the hotel's guest rooms will include shelves for helmets and strong hooks that can handle the weight of leather jackets.

Other features include an on-site bike wash and covered motorcycle parking.
